WELCOME TO THE NEW WHITE GUIDE NORDIC – now featuring over 325 restaurants and the 60 best restaurants in the Baltic countries

The third edition of The White Guide Nordic was launched today in Stockholm. More than 300 journalists and restaurateurs took part in the event. The new guide covers the 325 best restaurants in Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Iceland, the Faroe Islands and Greenland. New this year is that it also contains reviews of the 60 best restaurants in the Baltic countries Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, thus covering a large part of northern Europe with its many both unique and interconnected cuisines.

Just as last year, the evaluation of the restaurant scene in the Nordics has resulted in a Top 30 list, which is included in the following pages. The list is topped by Esperanto and Fäviken in Sweden, followed by Maaemo in Norway, and Geranium and Kadeau København in Denmark.

Last year's Nordic no. 1, Noma in Copenhagen, has not been included in this year's guide as it closes shortly after the release of the guide. The same goes for high-scoring Restaurant Frantzén in Stockholm.

The following restaurants are new entries on the Top 30 list since last year:

- 13. Alchemist, Copenhagen, Denmark 90/37
- 13. Slotskøkkenet/Dragsholm slot Hørve, Denmark 90/37
- 16. Restaurant Koch Aarhus, Denmark 89/37
- 23. Adam/Albin Stockholm, Sweden 89/36
- 25. Re-Naa Stavanger, Norway 86/36
- 26. Omakase Köttslöjd, Stockholm, Sweden 85/36
- 26. Sabi Omakase, Stavanger, Norway 85/36
- 29. Ask, Helsinki, Finland 84/36

This year the guide covers 61 restaurants in Finland, 64 restaurants in Norway (including Svalbard), 92 restaurants in Sweden, 92 restaurants in Denmark (including 2 in Greenland and 5 in the Faroe Islands) and 15 restaurants in Iceland. This edition also covers the Baltic countries, presenting the 60 best restaurants in Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

The reviews and points in the book regarding Swedish and Danish restaurants are identical with the respective national guides (released in March and May respectively) with a few additions of newly opened or re-assessed restaurants. Only the 92 best restaurants in each country have been included in the Nordic edition, but the national guides are available in their entirety (in Danish and Swedish) in the App Store.

All of the restaurants in the Nordic guide are rated and grouped by country, category and location. The restaurants in all our guides are assessed on a scale of 100 points, according to the following: food (40 points), service (20 points), beverages (20 points) and setting/atmosphere (20 points). The food score is the most important as it determines the restaurants rating on the Top 30 list.

The White Guide Nordic is sold through established channels and distributed via partners. In addition to the printed guide and website (whiteguide-nordic.com), you can also download the app, containing complete reviews in English as well as an interactive map, at the App Store starting November 1st.

Quotes

"The gastronomy in the Nordics just keeps on evolving, and this year we've witnessed a restaurant boom in Norway with 16 new entries in the guide. Finland isn't far behind with 13 new entries," says Editor-in-Chief for the Nordic part of the guide, Lena Ilkjaer.

"The Baltic countries have their own proud culinary traditions, their own regional climate conditions and biotopes, but the practice of using various techniques to exploit and preserve what the brief growing season provides is as deeply rooted as in the Nordics, indeed even more deeply. If the Baltic region's cuisines continue to develop the way they are doing now and cultivate their distinctiveness, more people will discover that Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania are worth a journey," says Editor-in-Chief for the Baltic part of the guide, Anna Michelson Bodemark.

The White Guide

The White Guide has been the leading restaurant guide in Sweden since 2005 and was launched in Denmark in early 2014. These guides cover over 900 restaurants in the two countries, promoting continuous development in the world of gastronomy in this dynamic region.

The White Guide Nordic 2017 is a comprehensive restaurant guide in English covering the 325 best restaurants in Denmark (including the Faroe Islands and Greenland), Sweden, Norway (including Svalbard), Finland and Iceland. NB. For Sweden and Denmark, the points are mainly based on the national 2016 White Guides with some additions from the continuous testing for the national 2017 White Guides.

THE TOP 30 NORDIC LIST

The first number in the numerical pair to the right of each restaurant specifies the number of food points out of a possible 40. The second number indicates the restaurant's total out of 100 possible. Restaurants rated as Global masters level and Masters level are ranked according to their food total and then their overall total.

With almost 100 Masters level restaurants, the Nordic countries offer a wide variety of excellent culinary experiences. The Top 30 are all in the Global masters category and they include some of the best restaurants in the world, with chefs who are on the forefront of global gastronomy today - and most likely will be tomorrow.
